

BOOK FLEX CHALLENGE

The Book Flex Challenge is a fun way to celebrate all the amazing things you do as a reader.

Choose any square, complete the flex and claim it by marking the box your way, star it, stamp it, or give it a victory tick.

There's no race and no competition, everyone moves at their own pace.

Creative flexes

Connection flexes

Epic flexes

I drew a character that people
recognised
straight away

I met an author

I read more pages today than I ever have before

I talked about a book and made someone want to read it

I finished an entire series

I finished a whole book in one day

I read to someone and they really enjoyed it

I designed a book cover that gives the story
a whole new vibe

I smashed my reading goal
this week

I talked about books with someone and discovered we have so much in common

I built a playlist
that matches the mood of the book

I went to a
literary event,
for example,
a book launch or festival

I teamed up with someone and we turned the book into a shared adventure

I created a plot twist that I think would surprise
the author

I became so absorbed in a book that it felt like I teleported into the story

I finished a book and wanted to dive straight into another one
